INSTRUCTIONS

The University of Michigan-Ann Arbor offers two options for non-degree students to get financial aid. If you don't qualify for either, you can't receive federal aid but may be able to borrow a private loan.

→ Check the box that describes your status at the University of Michigan-Ann Arbor and complete the appropriate section:

Completing required prerequisite coursework prior to admission into a U-M degree program: COMPLETE SECTION A (below)

- To be completed by degree program admissions official.
- A student is required to complete specific prerequisite courses prior to admission to any UM-Ann Arbor degree program.
- Specific courses must be outlined including course name, course number, and numbers of credit hours.
- Students must register for at least six APPROVED credits.
- A new form must be completed for each subsequent term.

Completing a teacher certification that is not part of a U-M degree program: COMPLETE SECTION B (p. 2)

- To be completed by the academic administrator for your teacher certification program. You must be enrolled in a teacher certification program at UM-Ann Arbor. Other U-M certificate programs do not qualify.
- Students must register for at least six APPROVED credits.
