College is an investment in you – one of the biggest you will ever make.

We encourage you to apply for financial aid to determine what help you may receive. We’re here to help you navigate the aid process and answer your questions.

Contact us at 734-763-6600 or financial.aid@umich.edu or visit our office.

Remember:
- You must reapply for aid annually.
- Your aid is likely to be similar each year if your family circumstances and available U-M funds do not change.
- Aid is awarded on a rolling, first-come, first-served basis, so be sure to apply by the deadline!
- Apply for financial aid early to receive an aid offer by the May 1 enrollment deposit deadline. You don’t have to be admitted to U-M to apply for financial aid.

How do I apply for aid?
finaid.umich.edu/newstudent

Starting on October 1:
- Complete and submit the 2019-2020 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (use U-M’s federal school code 002325) fafsa.ed.gov
- Complete the PROFILE to be considered for U-M grants (use U-M’s CSS code 1839) cssprofile.collegeboard.org

Don’t wait to apply for aid!

OUR DEADLINES:

JULY 2018
What are the types of aid?

- GRANTS: Funds that are not repaid; awards are based on your financial need. [finaid.umich.edu/about-grants]
- LOANS: Funds that must be repaid, with interest, when you are no longer a student. See the loan categories under “Aid Types” at [finaid.umich.edu]
- SCHOLARSHIPS: Funds that are not repaid. Entering students are considered for most U-M scholarships; most are based on need, while others reflect U-M’s commitment to a student body diverse in experience, geography, special talents and academic achievement. [finaid.umich.edu/scholarships-at-u-m]
- WORK-STUDY EMPLOYMENT: Wages received through part-time employment, earning up to the amount awarded. You get a paycheck to apply to your college expenses. [finaid.umich.edu/work]

What is need-based aid and can I get it?

We review finances for you and your family to determine if you have need. We consider:

- Cost of Attendance, which refers to the estimated cost to attend U-M for Fall and Winter semesters.
- Expected Family Contribution (EFC), which is the amount that you and your family are expected to pay toward educational expenses.

*U-M uses information from the FAFSA and PROFILE to determine your EFC. The FAFSA determines eligibility for federal and state funds and the PROFILE determines eligibility for need-based grants from the university.

Who is eligible for aid?

[finaid.umich.edu/eligibility]

You must be a U.S. citizen or eligible non-citizen and enrolled at least half-time in a degree program.

What does it cost to attend U-M?

Use the U-M NET PRICE CALCULATOR to find your bottom line: [npc.collegeboard.org/student/app/umich]

For samples of family profiles and more about U-M affordability:
- [finaid.umich.edu/family-profiles]
- [admissions.umich.edu/affordability]

U-M COST OF ATTENDANCE

Cost of Attendance is based on estimated student budgets of tuition/fees, housing, books/supplies and personal/miscellaneous expenses assuming full-time attendance for Fall and Winter semesters. Financial aid helps to pay for these college costs.

Our commitment:

MICHIGAN RESIDENT STUDENTS

If you are a student with family income of $65,000 or less and assets below $50,000, and pursuing your first bachelor’s degree, we pay undergraduate tuition and mandatory university fees for up to four years as part of the “Go Blue Guarantee.” Students at higher incomes may also qualify for aid. [goblueguarantee.umich.edu]

NON-RESIDENT STUDENTS

We provide tuition support for students from qualifying families with incomes of up to about $90,000 per year and assets below $50,000.

ALL STUDENTS

Individual family situations may affect your aid package.
