INSTRUCTIONS:

The University of Michigan – Ann Arbor allows three options for students to receive financial aid as a Non-Candidate for Degree. If none of these apply, you are not eligible for federal financial aid. You may be eligible to borrow through a private loan source.

Check the box that describes your status at the University of Michigan–Ann Arbor and complete the appropriate section:

- Enrollment to complete required prerequisite course work > SECTION A (below)
 - To be completed by Degree Program Admissions Official.
 - A student is required to complete specific prerequisite courses prior to admission to any UM-Ann Arbor degree program.
 - Specific courses must be outlined including course name, course number and numbers of credit hours.
 - Students must register for at least six APPROVED credits.
 - A new form must be completed for each subsequent term.

- Enrollment as a Guest Student > SECTION B (p. 2)
 - To be completed by your home institution's financial aid office and academic advisor. (Example: A student attends Western Michigan University and his parents live in Ann Arbor. When home for summer vacation, he decides to take a required math course.)
 - The class MUST transfer to the student's home institution (in the above example, Western Michigan University).

- Enrollment in Teacher Certification Program > SECTION C (p. 2)

To be completed by Academic Administrator for your teacher certification program. You must be enrolled in teacher certification program at UM-Ann Arbor. Other U-M certificate programs do not qualify.

SECTION A: To be completed by degree program admissions official. A new form must be completed for each subsequent term.
